

Weighted multiple zeta values via higher Mahler measure

Yoshitaku Sasaki (Kinki Univ.)

Abstract

It is known that Mahler measures have a connection with zeta and L values. Recently, Kurokawa, Lalin and Ochiai introduced the multiple higher Mahler measure which is an generalization of the Mahler measure and gave some examples. I plan to talk about relations between a certain multiple higher Mahler measure and weighted multiple zeta values.